

Remembrance Day

Why Do We Have Remembrance Day?

Remembrance Day helps us to remember what happened during the First World War and any subsequent wars; we remember the soldiers who have fought and died for our country.

The First World War

The war took place between 1914 and 1918, in Belgium, France, Africa and the Middle East. All fit and healthy men of a young age were expected to join the army and fight for their country and over 10 million soldiers died; many were as young as 16 and 17.

What Is Armistice?

The Armistice was when the war ended in 1918; it officially ended at the eleventh hour, on the eleventh day, of the eleventh month (so 11am, 11th November 1918).
