

What Is the Water Cycle?

More than three quarters of the Earth's surface is water.

Some of this water evaporates in the heat of the Sun.

When the water has evaporated, it is in the form of water vapour.

Clouds are made from water vapour that has condensed to form tiny water droplets.

When the water droplets get too big, they fall from the clouds.

The water droplets can fall as rain, hail or snow.

Three hundred millions litres of water falls on dry land each day.

What is evaporated water known as? _____

What can water droplets fall as? Name al three.

Three hundred million litres of water falls on what each day?

When water droplets get too big, they fall from the sky. Why do you think they do this?

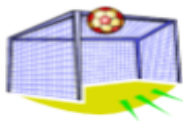

Why has the author written the title as a question?

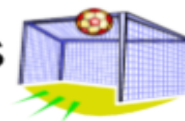

Spellings
gardening gardener limited limiting developing developed listening listened covered covering

Can you select 8 of your spellings to write into sentences?

Grammar Goals

Write a pronoun that could be used to replace the underlined words in the passage below. Do not change the meaning of the sentence.

The heating in our school comes on in winter. This makes our school nice and warm.

Pronoun: _____

Circle two suffixes that can be added to the word below to make new words.

enjoy

ful ment able less ness

Circle the possessive pronoun in the sentence below.

When Mum saw that I was wearing Oliver's gloves, she wanted to know where mine were.