Miss Rushworth's Weekly Challenge Box!

Challenge 1:

Egypt is one of the hottest and sunniest countries in the world. Can you research about what it is like in Egypt and write a postcard telling everyone all about it?

Top tip: You could make your own postcard or use the template on PurpleMash.

Challenge 2:

This Egyptian scarab necklace has two big blue gemstones on it. Can you work out how many gemstones there would be if you had 2 of these necklaces? What about if you had 3 or 4?

Bonus question: How many of these necklaces could you make using 10 gemstones?

Challenge 3:

Hieroglyphs are an ancient Egyptian way of writing that uses pictures instead of letters. Can you use the hieroglyphics mat to decode my message and sound it out carefully?

Bonus question: Can you have a go at creating your own message using hieroglyphs?

Celebrate your achievements by posting them on Tapestry!
