

Home Learning

Year 6 - PSHE (British Values)

- Here are the British Values we should all live by:
- Democracy
 - The Rule of Law
 - Personal Freedom
 - Tolerance of different people and beliefs
 - Mutual Respect
 - Active Participation

What is democracy?

Who do you think rules our country?

Is it...

The Queen?

The Army?

The People?

The Police?

Democracy means 'rule by the people'. It comes from the Greek words Dêmos, which means people, and krátos which means rule or strength.

This is because the idea of democracy developed in Greece in about 507BC

- Your task:
- Research the key parts of democracy and make a poster using these facts.
- Extension:
- Can you research who the Prime Minister is and their political party?

