

LO: To make notes about the story of Beowulf.

Today we are going to be watching a video all about the story of Beowulf. It will include information about different characters, the location, the monster Grendal and the outcome.

Your job today is to make general notes about the story to help you with your next piece of writing!

